Captured by the Japs when he fell from a raiding PT-Boat, Hoodoo Hannigan faces two hours of Jap "questioning"—and then death at dawn!

BALBO WALKS THE WIRE TO SAFETY--ONCE ON THE GROUND HE AND PERCY HURRY TO THE THEATRE.
SEE, PERCY, THERE'S A GYROSCOPE INSIDE THE CHEESE! IT'S KEPT BY ELECTRICITY! THE GYROSCOPIC ACTION MAKES THE CHEESE STAND ON ITS POINT!
I USED TO HAVE A TOY ONCE WHEN I WAS A KID. YOU CAN'T PUSH A GYROSCOPE OFF THE HORIZONTAL. IT ALWAYS FORCES ITS WAY BACK TO THE VERTICAL!
THAT'S WHY IT DIDN'T FEEL WHEN HE PUSHED IT DOWN, AND THAT'S WHY I WAS ABLE TO USE IT TO STEADY US ON THE WIRE. I USED THE GYROSCOPIC ACTION INSTEAD OF A BALANCING POLE.

PERCY! THAT DOPE! WELL IF I CAN'T HAVE THE CHEESE I SUPPOSE I'LL HAVE TO TAKE PERCY ONE GOOD THING IS THAT HE'S IN GOOD CONDITION EVEN IF HE DOESN'T HAVE ANY BRAINS
WHO'S THAT COMING DOWNSTAIRS FROM THE DRESSING ROOM? MAYBE IT'S

WHY IT'S PERCY!
YEAH-IT'S PERCY AND THE CHEESE! I DEFEATED IT NOW I'M THE STRONGEST IN THE WORLD!
LOOK AT HIM! I'LL NEVER BE ABLE TO GET HIM IN CONDITION AGAIN!

BALBO-THE AMAZING MYSTERY-MAKER – WILL BE BACK TO MYSTIFY YOU IN YOUR NEXT ISSUE OF MASTER COMICS!!!

BALBO'S OWN MAGIC PAGE

Ba[illegible]ed a whole series of [illegible] packed out with toy [illegible] which are intended [illegible] you about this month. But he found out that because of the metal shortage they are not being made any more [illegible] gives you:

BALBO'S RUNNING CHEESE

You show a little triangular piece of cheese which is wrapped in a piece of silver foil as some cheeses are.

You lay this on the back of your [illegible] hand. "You've heard of cheese so strong it would get up and walk? Well, here's a piece that [illegible] Watch!"

The cheese moves across the [illegible] your left hand and goes up across the top of your right hand which is above the left. You continue doing this faster and faster. It looks as if the cheese is running!

All you need is a long hair [illegible] instead of cheese you can whittle a piece of wood and glue tinfoil on it. Fasten one end of the hair to the cheese and the other end to your vest button. (See figure.)

Stretch out your left hand [illegible] the hair and the hair. Place "cheese" on the back of your left hand. Place right hand above and near the left. Now [illegible] your left hand downwards. The cheese seems to go up. You also move the right hand downwards. This forces the cheese to jump from your left hand to your right. Next move your right hand down and [illegible] left hand above the right. Continue doing this. The illusion is perfect. If you [illegible] fast tricks you can do this with [illegible] and they won't be able to [illegible]

THE OBEDIENT CHEESE

This is a nice follow up for the "Running Cheese." You [illegible] cheese on the table and say "Go on, go home!" The cheese moves across the table and goes into a cheese box. You pick up the box and anyone can examine both the box and the cheese.

You will need a flat ring, a woman's bracelet will do fine, a flat [illegible] a piece of thread [illegible] the ring. Place under table cloth and arrange thread as in Fig. The thread goes over the table around under the table and back. When you pull to you, the ring moves away across the table. At the far side of table place a little cardboard box (as in Fig.)

When you finish the "Running Cheese," break the hair and lay the cheese on the table on top of the ring which is hidden by the table cloth..

If the thread is fastened to you, all you have to do is back away and cheese glides across the table away from you! As soon as it enters the box, pick up the box and throw it to your audience.

These two effects will really baffle people. Practise them well before you present them.
